8 pm until Midnight—Music of America

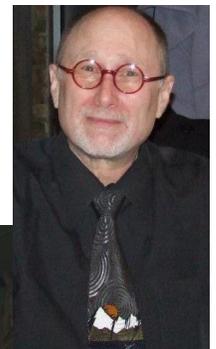

8-9:20 pm & 10:40-11:50pm
The one, the only!
CORKY SIEGEL

A First Night favorite, Corky Siegel lives in Evanston but is known internationally as one of the world's great blues harmonica players, blues pianist, singer, songwriter, author and celebrated composer of blues-classical forms. He is a recent winner of the Lila Wallace/Reader's Digest/Meet the Composer's National Award for Chamber Music Composition, the Illinois Arts Council Fellowship Award for Music Composition, Chicago Lifetime Achievement Award, and inductee into the Chicago Blues Hall of Fame. Plus, he just rocks. www.corkymusic.com

9:30-10:30 pm
STANDARD AMERICAN

Al Day, Charlie Madigan and Michelle Perry are Standard American, a trio focused on folk, country and original songs. Al Day has deep roots in the Chicago Folk scene and has played with a variety of groups over his 45 years as a performer. Charlie Madigan was a reporter and editor at The Tribune for 27 years, but behind the scenes was always writing and performing music. Michelle Perry is a versatile singer and player who spends every Saturday keeping the books straight at Guitar Works. This is the debut for this trio, but Al and Charlie have performed together many times. The music is passionate, entertaining and a good send off at the end of this bumpy year.

MIDNIGHT: Ring in 2019 with sparklers and a community sing of Auld Lang Syne on the church steps
