

First Night Evanston returns on 12/31/18 with an evening of programs starting at 6. Tickets are $25 for adults and $10 for children under 18. They are available at all 3 Evanston libraries and the City Clerk's office at 2100 Ridge and online at www.eventbrite.com.

Evening performances

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF EVANSTON, 1427 Chicago Avenue, sanctuary and crafts room

The evening begins at 6 with Family Fun in a crafts room for the kids (of all ages) to make hats, crowns, masks and noisemakers to celebrate the night.

Entertainment at 6 begins with Jason Kollum, magician, juggler and balloon twister and Jeanie B! www.jasonvarietyshow.com

Jeanie B! will get you up and moving with her music. She jams, jokes, and cajoles kids on stage to strut their stuff. And even the shyest audience member loses all inhibitions when the bubble machine kicks on! It all adds up to a rollicking great time!

www.jeaniebmusic.com

At 8 p.m. Corky Siegel who is known internationally as one of the world's great blues harmonica players, blues pianist, singer, songwriter, author and celebrated composer of blues-classical forms will present the first of two sets.

He is a recent winner of the Lila Wallace/Reader's Digest/Meet the Composer's national award for chamber music composition and the Illinois Arts Council Fellowship Award for Music Composition, Chicago Lifetime Achievement Award, and inductee into the Chicago Blues Hall of Fame.

www.corkymusic.com/about/

Making their Evanston debut at 9:30 is STANDARD AMERICAN with Al Day, Charlie Madigan and Michelle Perry and guitars performing jazz, country and folk with sweet voices.

Corky will ring in the new year with another set starting at 10:30 pm.

Sparklers will be provided at the stroke of midnight on the steps of First Presbyterian Church as we ring in the new year with Auld Lang Syne. Join us at 1427 Chicago Avenue from 6 to midnight. Online tickets and in-person sales located there. Free parking 90 space parking lot to the south of the building at Chicago and Greenwood.

More information at www.firstnightevanston.org.